Company Profile:

505-Junk is reinventing the junk removal experience so it is a more transparent and economical solution for commercial clients.

We work with various property managers, project managers, and superintendents to ensure we deliver our service on time and on budget. It is our mission to continuously find ways to increase efficiency and reduce the overall cost of commercial waste removal.

Benefits of using our service:

- We have Measurement Canada-certified scales built into our trucks.
- Our teams are trained and uniformed professionals.
- We are fully insured, including general liability and Worker's Compensation.
- We remove your junk from wherever it's located.
- You only pay for the weight that we take away.
- Whenever possible, we recycle what we take away.
- Your employees can focus on what they do best and leave junk removal to us.
- We can provide same-day service including weekends.
